COLLEGE OF LAW PRACTICE MANAGEMENT
Futures Forum
"From Wow to How: Real Talk About Generative AI for Legal Teams"

FACULTY

Casey Flaherty is Chief Strategy Officer at LexFusion where he helps accelerate legal innovation. Casey is a LegalTech founder and has been a BigLaw litigator, in-house counsel, legal operations consultant, and law firm executive. He is an expert in the shifting dynamics of the legal market, legal technology, and the design of legal services to meet business needs at scale and pace.

Casey Flaherty
LexFusion

Katherine Lowry serves as the Chief Information Officer for BakerHostetler, Co-Chair of the Emerging Technology team of BakerHostetler's Digital Assets and Data Management Group and leads the firm's legal technology consulting and R&D team, IncuBaker™, which is known for helping lawyers navigate the intersection of digital business, emerging technology, and the law. She is an award-winning leader for delivering transformational technology initiatives such as augmentation of legal services using AI and forming one of the first captive ALSP's to the legal industry, IncuBaker, and developing go-to market services to support integration of legal technology across multiple industries.

Katherine is passionate about aligning business strategy and digital imperatives to deliver critical solutions to law firms and corporate legal departments, creating operational stability, reducing highly manual workflows, operationalizing risk management, gaining competitive advantages through transformation, and creating data enriched client experiences by embracing innovative strategies.

Katherine Lowry
BakerHostetler

Lydia Petrakis is Senior Corporate Counsel and Digital Strategist in Microsoft's Corporate, External, and Legal Affairs (CELA) department on the Modern CELA team that focuses on driving industry-leading innovation to create the future of Microsoft's legal practice. Her key responsibilities are strategist, driver and change agent, and story-teller and ambassador focusing on culture, processes, tools, and external engagement to advance the digital transformation journey. Prior to this role, Lydia served as a product attorney supporting Microsoft's business and engineering teams responsible for Office 365 products and services. Prior to joining Microsoft, Lydia was legal counsel for MicroStrategy. Lydia graduated Summa Cum Laude with a B.A. in Political Science from Clemson University. Lydia received her J.D. from the George Mason University School of Law.

Lydia Petrakis
Microsoft

Darth Vaughn serves as Litigation Counsel and Legal Innovation Lead at Ford Motor Company. Darth is a driving force in the company's use of artificial intelligence to improve legal outcomes. With his extensive expertise in the application of AI to the practice of law, he has helped Ford's legal department become one of the pioneers in this field. Darth's background as a successful trial attorney and business technology consultant gives him the unique perspective and skills necessary to develop innovative solutions for the next generation of legal service delivery.

Darth Vaughn
Ford Motor Company

MODERATOR

Farrah Pepper is the Chief Legal Innovation Counsel (CLIC) at Marsh McLennan, where she makes things...click. Farrah created and leads the company's Legal Innovation & Technology (LIT) team, including the LIT Lab (legal innovation lab) and the legal data discovery program. Farrah is a fellow and a member of the Board of Directors of the College of Law Practice Management. Farrah is Vice President and a member of the Board of Directors of CLOC (Corporate Legal Operations Consortium), a leading global organization dedicated to transforming the business and practice of law. She has recently been named as In-House Innovator of the Year (Legaltech's Leaders in Tech Law), a Relativity AI Visionary and received a Relativity Innovation Award for Inclusion. She is a two-time ACC Value Champion and a 2021 ILTA Influential Woman of Legal Tech.

Farrah Pepper
Marsh McLennan