

REID TRAUTZ

Senior Director, Practice & Professionalism Center
American Immigration Lawyers Association
rtrautz@aila.org
703.867.4845

Biography

Reid Trautz is Senior Director of the AILA Practice & Professionalism Center, where he helps lawyers improve their businesses and innovate the delivery of legal services to their clients. He is a nationally recognized advisor, author, and presenter on practice issues, including business process innovation, law practice technology, and legal ethics. Over the past several years his work focuses primarily on innovation and the future of practicing law. He is a past chair of ABA TECHSHOW, and presently serves as Co-Chair of the ABA Law Practice Division Futures Initiative and co-authors the “Future Proofing” column for Law Practice Magazine. Reid is an elected Fellow of the College of Law Practice Management.